TESTIMONIALS

"Leah Weinberg is a talented speaker who is able to moderate and control conversations with multiple speakers with ease while also tackling difficult topics, such as gender norms, gender identity, sexuality, and race. Leah's colorful presentation and upbeat attitude mean she is as compelling as she is informative. She commands the room and is very effective at keeping the audience engaged. I have been lucky enough to both be in an audience with Leah, and share the spotlight with her, and she is as professional as they come!"

TESTIMONIALS

"Leah is one of the most helpful speakers I've seen in ages. She uses her years of experience to talk about lessons learned, helpful information and tips. With a perfect balance between professionalism and emotional, I've always found her talks provide me with things I can ACTUALLY do in my business, while making me feel empowered to do those things. Leah is a calm, clear speaker who takes her time to ensure her message is being received. She does not rush, always comes across as confident, yet humble, and takes time to answer questions. As another professional in the industry, I also can relate to the accuracy of everything Leah says. During one of her webinars, on styled shoots, I found myself nodding in agreement with almost all of what she was saying!"
