

TESTIMONIAL

"Some speakers motivate their audiences while others share practical business ideas. Amber delivers both! At our retreat, she trained our members in work-life harmony strategies they could put to use immediately while getting them excited again about their businesses despite the pandemic. The best sign she did an amazing job for us? Long after her session, our attendees were still talking about her tips for 'stacking appointments' and 'time blocking'!"

TESTIMONIALS

"I've heard Amber speak on numerous topics both as a mentor in the large REFINE group, as our leader in The Refine Collective, and during numerous summits and other educational settings. Whether she's speaking via Zoom or a recorded series, or in person, I know it's always going to be a great topic full of info pertinent to my business. I've listened to Amber and followed her since the start of my career 5 years ago to now, and regardless of the stage of business you're in, Amber always speaks with enough personal touches and experience that work for you, in any stage of your business.

Amber has always been a no fluff kind of person, and she says it like it is, which is so necessary in the climate we are in now for the wedding industry. I know that I will walk away from every opportunity to hear her speak with new nuggets of info (whether through her topic or any worksheet she provides) to help me further my business."

- Katy Padilla, Scarlet Rose Events, San Antonio

"I attended a retreat with Amber and she's such a great leader and presenter! Amber knows how to seamlessly integrate real life examples into abstract education and insights. In this industry it's important that we learn both the foundation and real life ways -- Amber really does teach both. Amber is confident in her presenting and grabs attention with what she's teaching or speaking. I look forward to her webinars, retreats and various educational talks. She always has helpful insight and encourages her audience to better themselves and business."

- Brittney Bartling, Refine Retreat Attendee, BLB Events, New York City

"Amber Anderson is my ideal speaker. Clear, concise and always respectful with any questions you may have. Leaving any of her sessions, I have a clear list of key takeaways on steps to improve my business."
